ORDER

Plaintiff, appearing pro se, has filed this action in the Western District of Oklahoma, seeking damages for alleged violations of her civil rights by the City of Eufaula, located in McIntosh County. In the Civil Cover Sheet accompanying her Complaint, Plaintiff identifies McIntosh County as her place of residence. The Complaint contains no allegations against any resident of the geographical area comprising the Western District of Oklahoma, nor does it allege that any act or omission underlying Plaintiff's claims occurred within this district or involved any property located here.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391, a civil action may be brought only in certain judicial districts. The statute provides that a civil action may be brought in:

- (1) a judicial district in which any defendant resides, if all defendants are residents of the State in which the district is located
- (2) a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or a substantial part of property that is the subject of the action is situated; or

(3) if there is no district in which an action may otherwise be brought as provided in this section, any judicial district in which any defendant is subject to the court's personal jurisdiction with respect to such action.

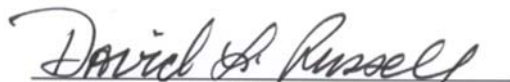

28 U.S.C. §1391(b)(1)-(3). In this case, no defendant resides in this judicial district, and the allegations are based on occurrences in McIntosh County, located in the Eastern District of Oklahoma. There is no contention that the claims involve property located in this judicial district. Accordingly, the Complaint shows that venue is improper in the Western District of Oklahoma.

Where the Court concludes upon review of the Complaint that venue is improper, it “shall dismiss, or if it be in the interest of justice, transfer such case to any district or division in which it could have been brought.” 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a). Where, as here, the defendant has not yet been served, the Court may, in lieu of dismissal, sua sponte transfer the action pursuant to § 1406(a), if doing so is in the interest of justice. Trujillo v. Williams, 465 F.3d 1210, 1222-1223 (10th Cir. 2006).

The Court concludes that, rather than dismissing this case and requiring Plaintiff to file it in the proper forum, transfer to the Eastern District of Oklahoma is proper. Plaintiff has also filed a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and this matter should also be decided by the transferee court.

Accordingly, the Clerk of this Court is directed to take the necessary action to transfer this case to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Oklahoma.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 22nd day of December, 2016.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
